

90% of SMSs read within 3 minutes

Marketing Agencies now have the opportunity to place Messito right next to other marketing channels, such as billboards, magazines, newspapers and online web banners.

Marketing Agencies

Facts

- Organisations are becoming more cost-conscious and budgets are being closely monitored
- On average, people check their mobile phones 150 times per day
- In 2014, mobile internet is set to take over desktop internet usage – mobile marketing's potential should certainly be exploited!

Key benefits

- Messito is an ideal solution for customers who don't have big budgets
- SMS marketing results can be measured
- Your customers can reach their audiences directly through their mobile phones using Messito's technology

As a marketing agency you can repackage Messito, keeping the intuitive, user-friendly technology but making it your own in terms of branding.

Rebranding Messito allows you to resell it to your own customers, at your own price while giving them the freedom to use the tool as and when they need to.
